WHAT'S IN THE BAG

"A band with charm, confidence and audience appeal who handles country-rock in their own original way"

ABOUT US

What's In The Bag is a musical trio with a strong female lead. With an eclectic approach to their music, they merge different elements of the past's rock- and country sounds in their own original style. The band is driven by a strong shared friendship and passion for writing and producing original music in their home-studio. On stage, the trio attracts notice with their quirky personalities and special friendship bond and creates an intimate, raw and festive musical space for the audience to take part in.

THE THREE COWBOYS

What's In The Bag consists of a female lead, Janni, who captures the audience with her strong and beautiful vocals along with the bass. Meanwhile, Frederik works as a one-man band where he is able to control the rhythm while multitasking multiple instruments such as the drums and the guitar. Sebastian controls the lead guitar and ensures to keep the audience on their toes with his solos on the guitar and the harp. The trio's interaction along with their quirky personalities on stage invites the audience to be part of their friendship and musical journey.

SHOWS

The band has performed on multiple locations and for events all over Denmark throughout the last two years. This includes performing as support for Juncker and at the event Sommer ved Søen in Kolding. In summer 2024 they went on a mini tour in Finland.
